GREAT ATTRACTIONS OUR MAGNIFICENT

After one year's careful preparation of every stock for the HOLIDAY TRADE, we throw open to-morrow morning eight entire city blocks of space, loaded with the most complete and varied lines of merchandise ever selected by expert buyers, or ever displayed in America. They comprise all grades, from the medium to that of highest perfection. No purse need hesitate. None has been forgotten. We rely on honest, fair treatment of customers as our best advertisement, No misrepresentations, no distortion of facts. Everything is exactly as stated. This is what makes our store a household term significant of all that is honest and fair in business. This is the foundation of our great retail trade. This is what crowds our wholesale floor from morning till night with throngs of eager, persistent buyers of the MILLIONS OF DOLLARS OF WHOLESALE STOCKS FOR WINTER USE, offered there AT LESS THAN MANUFACTURING COST. This is what draws thousands of new faces to our store every day. Will you be among them?

Dutton agreed to take the property, and asked Winterson to have the title deeds made out so that he could show them to Henry Daily, Jr., his lawyer. The title deeds were made out on Sept. 5 and turned over to Dutton. Winterson heard nothing from Dutton for some time, and when he tried to get back the deeds Juitton made excuses and put him off from day to day.

Button declares that he paid $200 on account, and that the deed was given to Lawyer Isaliv for him and duly recorded. He said he had an affidavit from Winterson, in which the latter says there was no encumbrance on the property save $10,000. Dutton savs he learned that the chcumbrance was $13,000, and that foreclosure proceedings had been instituted. I pon Lawyer Daly's advice Dutton reconveyed the property to Winterson and received a receipt for this transaction, so that he savs, the matter is just where it was before the transaction took place, except that he is $200 out. Dutton was released in $2,500 bail. The title deeds were made out on Sept. 5 and Washington Bridge Park Awards. David McClure, Samuel W. Milbank, and Edmund H. Martine, who, in January, 1803, were appointed by the Supreme Court Commissioners, under the law of 1800, to take testimony and appraise the value of the property to be taken for the purposes of Washington Bridge Park, have submitted their report to the Supreme Court. There are twenty-six parcels of land taken for the proposed park, and by the report taken for the proposed park, and by the report of the Commissioners the city will be asked to pay for this property $548.755. The property to be taken is in the region of 175d to 181st streets and Amsterdam avenue. Robert Hogardus made a claim for compensation to his property, which is situated just outside of the property taken for the park, upon the ground that the entrance to his property was destroyed or injured, but the Commissioners held that he was not entitled to any compensation.

Blew Out the Gas and Missed His Stramer. Michael Nealy, who keeps a hotel near tioshen, arrived in this city on Friday, intending to sail for England yesterday. He registered at the Magnolia Hotel in Chambers street and left word to be called at 5 A. M. About an hour earlier than this the night clerk traced a sinell of gas to Nealy's room, broke in the door, and found him unconclous on the best. The gas was turned full head on. An ambulance took Nealy to the Hudson Street Hospital.

It was said by friends of Nealy's that his recently took the Keeley Gold Cure. He was soler, however, when he went to bed on Friday night. It is supposed that he blew out the gas. At the hospital, where Nealy is a prisoner, it was said that he was in a fair way toward recovery. the Magnolia Hotel in Chambers street and left
